

Drexel – Haddonfield --- Partnership

Drexel-Haddonfield Partnership Program Overview

Technology Support

Blackboard

Professional Development

Math Forum

Educational Partnerships

Curriculum Audits

Drexel-Haddonfield
Students

Current Involvement

Drexel Courses

- 15 Students have been accepted into the Drexel/Haddonfield Partnership
- 7 HMHS students have completed 17 different classes at Drexel University

Current Involvement

Summer Programs

- 11 students participated in summer programs at Drexel University this past summer
- 4 HMHS students participated in Drexel University internships

Current Involvement

Program Development

- Blackboard Vista – 4 teachers
- Math and Science teachers - visited the Drexel Engineering and Science Labs
- The Math Forum @ Drexel University

As a result of the Partnership

- HMHS students will have the opportunity to:
 - Be considered Drexel University students
 - Enroll in Drexel courses while attending HMHS
 - Receive the rights and privileges of DU students:
 - Drexel University ID
 - Access to library, writing center, tutors and other resources
 - Receive a Drexel transcript of completed coursework

Visiting Scholar Program

- Current Drexel Program (Pennoni Honors College)
- Meets Drexel's Charter
- Admission decided by Drexel University
- Courses are free
- Requirements
 - 3.75 (95) Average
 - 1200 SAT (120 PSAT)
 - 2 Letters of Recommendation
- Course enrollment is based on open seats

Cohort Student

- Future program
- If a cohort of 8 or more HMHS students enrolled in a course, Drexel will:
 - Run the course at a suitable location
 - Charge a set price for the course that will be divided by the HMHS students
- Satellite Classes at BCC

Process

- If interested in participating
 - Speak with counselor
 - Meeting with assistant principal, student, and parents
 - Complete Drexel application
 - Registration and enrollment

Option II

- Policy that governs coursework beyond HMHS
 - Policy
 - Application
- Committee will determine
 - Number of credits
 - Weighting of course
- Drexel courses count toward GPA

Web Site

- Drexel Haddonfield Partnership Web Site

- Questions – email:
cklaus@haddonfield.k12.nj.us