AMERICA'S BEST HIGH SCHOOLS

Each year, Newsweek picks the best high schools in the country based on how hard school staffs work to challenge students with advanced-placement college-level courses, how students succeed on the SAT, and how many of them go to college. Haddonfield Memorial High School ranked No. 125, earning a spot in the top quarter percent.

COMMUNITY PRIDE: Haddonfield earns third straight program honors

By DON BENEVENTO
Courier-Post Staff

Evidently there are times when smaller is better.

Take, for example, the case of Haddonfield High School.

A Group 2 school playing in the Colonial Conference, the Haddonfield athletic program again proved to be the best in South Jersey.

The determination was made by analyzing each of the 18 Top 10 and two Top 5 rankings conducted by the Courier-Post throughout the school year.

A No. 1 finish was worth 10 points, No. 2 was worth nine points, and so on down to one point for a No. 10 finish.

Using that method, the Bulldawgs garnered 108 points, well ahead of Shawnee's 75 points and Cherokee's 68.

Haddonfield athletic director Lefteris Banos suggested that the school's success is something that is shared by the entire town.
